

Choctawhatchee, Pea and Yellow Rivers Watershed Management Authority

SOUTHEAST ALABAMA WATER MANAGEMENT SYMPOSIUM

Hosted by the City of Enterprise, Alabama
Enterprise Civic Center, Enterprise, Alabama
Monday, August 15, 2016

“A Comprehensive Watershed Management Plan for Southeast Alabama”

9:00 am – 10:00 am	Registration
10:00 am –10:10 am	Welcome and Opening Remarks - Enterprise Mayor Kenneth Boswell
10:10 am–10:40 am	Keynote Address – John McMillan, Commissioner of Agriculture & Industries
10:40 am – 10:50 am	Special Guest – State Senator Jimmy Holley, District 31
10:50 am – 11:00 am	Special Guest – State Representative Alan Boothe, District 89
11:00 am- 11:30 am	(Title.....) Dr. Nick Tew, State Geologist , Chairman, Alabama Water Agencies Working Group
11:30 am – 12:00 am	(Title.....) Dr. Bennett Bearden, Director, Water policy and Law Institute, University of Alabama
12:00 pm – 1:00 pm	Lunch (Provided)
1:00 pm – 1:30 pm	The Science of Groundwater Resources Management in the Choctawhatchee, Pea and Yellow rivers Watersheds Marlon Cook, Hydrogeologist, Cook Hydrogeology, LLC
1:30 pm – 2:00 pm	Using Alabama’s Water Resources sustainably to Protect Alabama Agriculture Dr. Richard T. McNider, Distinguished Professor of Science, Earth Systems Science Center, UAH
2:00 pm – 2:25 pm	The Effectiveness of a Water Loss Reduction Program Kathy Horne, Executive Director, Alabama rural Water Association
2:25 pm – 2:50 pm	Water is Life: Growing Up With the Natural Wonders of Alabama’s Choctawhatchee River Mitch Reid, Program Director, Alabama Rivers Alliance
2:50 pm – 3:00 pm	Closing Remarks Barbara Gibson, Executive Director, Choctawhatchee, Pea and Yellow Rivers Watershed Management Authority

Sponsored by:

City of Florala, AL
Alabama Rural Water Association
Peoples South Bank, Ozark, AL
Ozark Utilities Board, Ozark, AL
Tetra Tech, Mobile, AL
Cook Hydrogeology, LLC

