Order Prohibiting Poultry Exhibitions And The Assembling Of Poultry To Be Sold

Due to the recent confirmation of Avian Influenza in the State of Tennessee and with three investigations of avian influenza in north Alabama, it is hereby ordered that all poultry exhibitions in the State of Alabama are prohibited until this order is lifted by the Alabama Department of Agriculture and Industries (ADAI). In addition, the concentration, collection, or assembly of poultry of all types, including waterfowl and wild and exotic birds, from one or more premises, at a private or public place, for purposes of sale is prohibited until this order is lifted by ADAI. This includes, but is not limited to, poultry exhibitions or sales at regional and county fairs, festivals, swap meets, exotic sales and live bird markets, flea markets and auctions.

This order is effective on this the 15th day of March, 2017. Authority for this order is found in Ala. Code §§ 2-15-150 through 2-15-174, Ala. Code §§ 2-16-20 through 2-16-23, and Ala. Admin. Code Rules 80-3-18-.08 and 80-3-18-.10.

Any questions regarding this order should be directed to the ADAI Poultry Division at 334-240-6584.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
