For complete timeline with details – see "Avian Influenza Timeline" below (on website)

3/5/17

- HPAI confirmed in commercial flock in Lincoln County, TN
- Quarantine control zone established surrounding confirmed premises which included portions of north Alabama.
- Surveillance samples collected from commercial and backyard flocks within zone and sent to State Diagnostic Lab in Auburn, AL and any suspected (avian influenza) positive samples forwarded to NVSL in Ames, Jowa.

3/9/17

Poultry flock in Giles County, TN confirmed positive for LPAI

3/12/17

USDA poultry

conducting routine surveillance in accordance with Alabama's HPAI Preparedness & Response Plan, collect samples from guinea fowl at the TaCo-Bet Trade Day flea market near Scottsboro

location in

Jackson County,

3/13/17

testing of commercial and backyard flocks continue in control zone based on positive cases in Lincoln & Giles County, TN

3/14/17

- Testing of samples from Jackson Co. flock undergoing testing at NVSL. Premises placed under quarantine.
- Backyard flock in Madison Co. suspect for Avian Influenza; testing at NVSL ongoing. Premises placed under quarantine
- Commercial
  Breeder flock in Lauderdale Co., AL
  suspect for Avian Influenza; testing at NVSL ongoing.
  Premises placed
  under quarantine.
- PROHIBITION
  ORDER ON EXHIBITION,
  CONCENRATION, ASSEMBLY OF
  CERTAIN POULTRY
  IN ALABAMA ISSUED
  BY STATE
  DEPARTMENT OF AG & INDUSTRIES.

3/16/17

- Samples from collected from guinea fowl sold at TaCo-Bet Tade Day flea market and premises of origin of Guinea Fowl confirmed positive for H7N9 LPAI.
- 3 km surveillance zone established surrounding H7N9 LPAI flocks in Jackson Co., AL

3/17/17

Backyard

flock of

depopula

- Premises in Lauderdale and Madison counties considered presumptive LPAI by USDA (neither flock exhibited clinical sings of illness)
- USDA Press Release: USDA confirms second case of HPAI in commercial flock ir Lincoln Co., TN.

3/21/17

-Commercial breeder flock in Pickens Co., AL confirmed presumptive H7N9 LPAI by NVSL (flock not showing any clinical signs). Premises placed under quarantine, surveillance zone established and surveillance testing initiated

- 2nd Madison Co., AL backyard flock
confirmed
presumptive H7N9
LPAI by NVSL (flock
not showing any
clinical signs).
Premises placed
under quarantine,
surveillance zone
established,
surveillance testing
initiated.

3/22/17

- Commercial
  Flock in Cullman
  Co., AL confirmed
  positive for H7N9
  LPAI by NVSL.
  Premises placed
  under quarantine,
  surveillance zone
  established,
  surveillance
  testing initiated.
- -Previously mentioned commercial flock in Lauderdale Co., AL confirmed positive for LPAI by NVSL.
- -Previously mentioned backyard flock in Madison Co., AL confirmed positive for LPAI by NVSL.

- 3/23/17

   Sample collection from commercial and backyard flocks continue in both control and surveillance
  - -Premises
    under investigation in Covington Co., AL confirmed negative for
    avian influenza.

3/27/17

- -Sample collection from commercial and backyard flocks in Cullman Co., AL surveillance zone continues.
- State of Georgia
  confirms H7
  presumptive
  LPAI (no clinic
  signs of illness).
  Surveillance
  zone
  established,
  including portions of northeast
  Alabama.
  Surveillance
  samples have been collected
  and at this time,
  all samples are negative for
  avian influenza.