

Department Welcomes Summer Interns

The Alabama Department of Agriculture and Industries welcomes three summer interns. From left to right, Joe Wiley Mitchell from Albertville, Ala., William Boyd Blackman from Greenville, Ala., Commissioner John McMillian, and Brittany Carter from Ozark Ala. Mitchell is a senior at Auburn University majoring in Agricultural Business and Economics with a minor in Poultry Science. He is assigned to the Executive Division working with the legal section, federal programs and governmental affairs. Blackmon is a senior at Troy University majoring in Computer Science. He is working in the Information Technology Section assisting them in a variety of areas. Carter is a senior majoring in Agricultural Communications with a minor in Political Science. She is assigned to the Executive Division assisting with communications, social media and federal programs.