2021 Alabama Auxin Training-Best Management Practices

1. All applicators who will spray dicamba on resistant row crops in Alabama will need to participate this training, regardless if they have received training certificate in the past. People who only handles mixing and loading are also required to take the training.
2. The 2021 training certificate will be valid only for 2021 season based on current federal labels.
3. Training fee is $15 per person which can be paid by credit or debit card using the link below.
4. Participants can check federal labels if they are unsure about certain questions in the quiz.
5. Participants will be able to download their certificates directly from Canvas training course only after 1) paying for training fee, 2) using the link provided in the receipt email to register the training course, 3) finishing the training on Zoom, and 4) passing the quiz in the training course.
6. Contact your local extension office if you have technical difficulty or unreliable internet for virtual training. In-person training may be offered at limited compacity and will be determined case by case.
7. Dr. Steve Li and Dr. David Russell will provide 2021 weed control update for major row crops following the Auxin Training on Feb 11, Feb 25 and Mar 8.

Credit/debit card payment link: <https://www.aces.edu/go/auxintraining>

Registration link for auxin training will be provided in the receipt email.

If you are paying for multiple people's training fee through this link, please send an email to steveli@auburn.edu and buchadm@auburn.edu with their names, mailing address and phone number that exactly match their registration information in the training course.

Contact Deborah Buchanan at buchadm@auburn.edu or (334) 844-5482, if 1) you have trouble to pay online, 2) you must mail a check for the training fee, 3) you scheduled a training but need to change date.

Contact Dr. Steve Li (steveli@auburn.edu; 334-707-7370) or your local extension office for issues and questions regarding registration, training, and certificate.
